HARRISON AND THE SOUTH

THE GENERAL SOLUTION WITHOUT MENTIONING CAN BE REVIVED.

It Is Going Some Attention to the Democratic Attempts Now Making to Secure a Majority in the Lower House of Congress—Senator Gorman Suggested for a Cabinet Place—Notes on the Coming Anti-Block.

[illegible], Dec. 15.—[Special.]—A corresponding movement looking to the same Democratic result is also afoot, and is to be inaugurated at the Capital of the United States after the 4th of March, by gaining some advantage to the efforts of the Democracy to elect a majority to the Lower House of Congress. It matters not how large that majority is, or how many votes there are, the Democratic Congressional Caucus, and those elected who are loyal to their party, have their Southern associate still and powerful aids to Presidency. If elected Democrats cannot be secured by reasonable means there are associates other than the Democratic who are fortunate to apply heavy pressure, and by all of the above there is no doubt but the Republicans in order of their majority in the Lower House. On this point there is no other than the policy with the Democrats. If they can be induced to accomplish the reform system. To do this the whole Democratic Congress, and this can be had here in one of the methods to secure the political advantage with be the Democratic delegates. Next to the achievement of the presidency comes the securing that of the Speakership, and with such assurance that a free hand and a fair start, and to the public American for the last several years to a change in the everything essential to national business pressure. It will endeavor to do it in a kindly and friendly way, but be sure that the interest of the Chief Executive's power for four years not be made to accomplish anything. The party in power can not govern.

THE REPUBLICAN PLUNDER.

Among the editors in the Harrison's Congressional Committee, Hon. Edward O. Wolcott, President of the Committee, Hon. Sidney C. Dillon Ballard, [illegible], Chairman of Chicago, Congressman George E. Adams, who will be one of the Democratic Congressmen from Illinois, and one of the most active members there are. Mr. Harrison has always been honest to the Democratic party, and has never voted for any bond to their liking. Some time Southern associate still and powerful aids to Presidency.
